LAW COURTS.

SUPERIOR COURT.—Before Judge Sanford.—John Dow, et al. vs. John Thompson, et al.—Action for libel contained in Thompson's Bank Note Reporter, already referred to. Motion for plaintiffs, $200.

UNITED STATES CIRCUIT COURT.—There will be a Special Term of this Court in Boston to hear argument in equity, law, and appeals in admiralty.

COURT OF GENERAL SESSIONS.—Wednesday.—At the regular session of the Court of General Sessions were open Grand Jury, Matthew Jennings, James J. Moore, Archibald Hill, Henry Kever, Clinton G. Hart, Jonathan West, and others. The trial of the people charged with having sent the House of Representatives a bill was adjourned, and the Court adjourned until the evening of 11 o'clock.

JUDGE COURT.—Officer Hanna, of the Ninth Ward, yesterday afternoon, was engaged in the act of clearing street persons. It appears that they had presented themselves with a hand and wagon, which they had used to collect the trash which would result in removing the grime, which they would want to remove in the wagon. They were taken before Justice Beasley, who committed them to jail examination.

BROOKLYN.—Police Court—Justice John C. Smith was taken yesterday, and he again sat at the bench. All of the trials were suspended, and Justice Weller of New Utrecht was sent out to the station house to have his medical report made.

CALIFORNIA EXPLORATION.—The St Louis (Mo.) Advertiser says that last May says that up to that date 2,000 wagons had crossed the ferry opposite that landing, and at the present a few miles above the town; and about 1,500 had crossed at ferris above Savannah Landing and at Council Bluffs. That paper adds: "The average is about four persons, and the wagons are loaded with household goods, and now or now on the plains, that have crossed the Missouri River at St Louis, Council Bluffs, and intermediate ferris, 4,200 wagons, 17,000 men, and 38,000 animals. There are but few arrivals, or remaining on the eastern bank of the river."

SMALL POX.—The ship Jane H. Chapman, arrived at that port on May 26, and is now lying at the Point of the Point, has had a heavy mortality among the passengers she brought, from the small pox. Seven cases are reported to have died on the passage, and a considerable number are now on board—full all from this loathsome disease. [N. O. Daily, May 29.]

MARRIED.—At White Plains, on Tuesday, June 5, by Rev. Paul E. Brown, Mr. WILLIAM WRIGHT of the City to Miss ANGELINA, daughter of George Dudson, King of the City.

A NEW HOME.—Rev. Mr. Horatio, Mr. George Fischer of New Haven, to Miss Martha A. Johnson of New Haven.
